Who we are

Who is providing this notice? Community Bank, N.A.

What we do

How does Community Bank, N.A. protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Community Bank, N.A. collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- Apply for a loan
- Show your government-issued ID or show your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? Your choices will apply to everyone on your accounts – unless you tell us otherwise.
